

WE GATHER

Opening Hymn

Morning Has Broken

1. Morning has broken, like the first morning, blackbird has spoken like the first bird. Praise for the singing, Praise for the morning, Praise for them, springing fresh from the word.

2. Sweet the rain's new fall, sunlit from heaven, like the first dewfall on the first grass. Praise for the sweetness of the wet garden, sprung in completeness where his feet pass.

3. Mine is the sunlight, Mine is the morning, born of the one light Eden saw play. Praise with elation, Praise ev'ry morning, God's recreation of the new day.

The people standing. The Celebrant says

Blessed be God: Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

People And blessed be his kingdom, now and for ever. Amen.

Collect: Most high, omnipotent, good Lord, grant your people grace to renounce gladly the vanities of this world; that, following the way of blessed Francis, we may for love of you delight in your whole creation with perfectness of joy; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

Canticle of Brother Sun

Most High, all powerful, good Lord, to you be praise, glory, honor, and all blessing.

Only to you, Most High, do they belong and no one is worthy to call upon your name.

May you be praised, my Lord, with all your creatures, especially brother sun, through whom you lighten the day for us.

He is beautiful and radiant with great splendor, and he signifies you, O Most High.

Be praised, my Lord, for sister moon and the stars; Clear and precious and lovely, they are formed in heaven.

Be praised, my Lord, for brother wind and by air and clouds, clear skies and all weathers, by which you give sustenance to your creatures.

Be praised, my Lord, for brother fire, by whom the night is illumined for us; he is beautiful and cheerful, full of power and strength.

Be praised, my Lord, for sister, our mother earth, who sustains and governs us and produces diverse fruits and colored flowers and grass.

Be praised, my Lord, by all those who forgive for love of you and who bear weakness and tribulation.

Blessed are those who endure in peace; For by you Most High, they will be crowned.

Be praised, my Lord, for our sister, the death of the body, from whom no one living is able to flee; woe to those who are dying in mortal sin.

Blessed are those who are found doing your most holy will, for the second death will do them no harm.

Praise and bless my Lord and give him thanks and serve him with great humility.

The Holy Gospel

Luke 17:11-19

On the way to Jerusalem Jesus was going through the region between Samaria and Galilee. As he entered a village, ten lepers approached him. Keeping their distance, they called out, saying, "Jesus, Master, have mercy on us!" When he saw them, he said to them, "Go and show yourselves to the priests." And as they went, they were made clean. Then one of them, when he saw that he was healed, turned back, praising God with a loud voice. He prostrated himself at Jesus' feet and thanked him. And he was a Samaritan. Then Jesus asked, "Were not ten made clean? But the other nine, where are they? Was none of them found to return and give praise to God except this foreigner?" Then he said to him, "Get up and go on your way; your faith has made you well."

Sermon and the Blessings of the Animals

The Rev. Jack Hardaway

WE RESPONDThe Prayers of the People

Let us give thanks to God our Father for all his gifts so freely bestowed upon us.

For the beauty and wonder of your creation, in earth and sky and sea.

We thank you, Lord.

For all that is gracious in the lives of men and women, revealing the image of Christ.

We thank you, Lord.

For our daily food and drink, our homes and families, and our friends.

We thank you, Lord.

For minds to think, and hearts to love, and hands to serve,

We thank, Lord.

For health and strength to work, and leisure to rest and play,

We thank you, Lord.

For the brave and courageous, who are patient in suffering and faithful in adversity,

We thank you, Lord.

For all valiant seekers after truth, liberty, and justice,

We thank, Lord.

For the communion of saints, in all times and places,

We thank, Lord.

Above all, we give you thanks for the great mercies and promises given to us in

Christ Jesus our Lord;

To him be praise and glory, with, you O Father, and the Holy Spirit, now and for ever. Amen.

The Peace

WE OFFER UP

The Great Thanksgiving, Eucharistic Prayer A

Celebrant The Lord be with you.People And also with you.Celebrant Lift up your hearts.People We lift them to the Lord.Celebrant Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.People It is right to give him thanks and praise.

It is right, and a good joyful thing, always and everywhere to give thanks to you, Father Almighty, Creator of heaven and earth.

Therefore we praise you, joining our voices with Angels and Archangels and with all the company of heaven, who for ever sing this hymn to proclaim the glory of your Name.

Celebrant and People

Holy, holy, holy Lord, God of power and might, heaven and earth are full of your glory. Hosanna in the highest. Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord.

Hosanna in the highest.

The people remain standing.Then the Celebrant continues

Holy and gracious Father: In your infinite love you made us for yourself; and when we had fallen into sin and become subject to evil and death, you, in your mercy, sent Jesus Christ, your only and eternal Son, to share our human nature, to live and die as one of us, to reconcile us to you, the God and Father of all. He stretched out his arms upon the cross, and offered himself in obedience to your will, a perfect sacrifice for the whole world.

On the night he was handed over to suffering and death, our Lord Jesus Christ took bread; and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, and said, "Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me."

After supper he took the cup of wine; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said, "Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me."

Therefore we proclaim the mystery of faith:

Celebrant and People

Christ has died. Christ is risen. Christ will come again.

The Celebrant continues

We celebrate the memorial of our redemption, O Father, in this sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving. Recalling his death, resurrection, and ascension, we offer you these gifts. Sanctify them by your Holy Spirit to be for your people the Body and Blood of your Son, the holy food and drink of new and unending life in him. Sanctify us also that we may faithfully receive this holy Sacrament, and serve you in unity, constancy, and peace; and at the last day bring us with all your saints into the joy of your eternal kingdom.

All this we ask through your Son Jesus Christ, By him, and with him, and in him, in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honor and glory is yours, Almighty Father, now and for ever. AMEN.

And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to say.

People and Celebrant

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy Name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever and ever. Amen.

The Breaking of the Bread

The Celebrant breaks the consecrated Bread.

A period of silence is kept.

Then may be sung or said

{Alleluia.} Christ our Passover is sacrificed for us;

Therefore let us keep the feast. {Alleluia.}

After Communion, the Celebrant says

Let us pray.

Celebrant and People

Lord, make me an instrument of your peace. Where there is hatred, let me sow love; where there is injury, pardon; where there is discord, union; where there is doubt, faith; where there is despair, hope; where there is darkness, light; and where there is sadness, joy. Grant that we may not so much seek to be consoled as to console; to be understood as to understand; to be loved, as to love. For it is in giving that we receive. It is in pardoning that we are pardoned. And it is in dying that we are born to eternal life. Amen

The Blessing

Closing Hymn

All creatures of our God and King

1. All creatures of our God and King, lift up your voices, let us sing: Alleluia, alleluia! Bright burning sun with golden beams, pale silver moon that gently gleams , to refrain

2. Great rushing winds and breezes soft, you clouds that ride the heavens a loft, O praise him, Alleluia! Fair rising morn, with praise rejoice, stars nightly singing . to refrain

3. Swift flowing water, pure and clear, make music for your Lord to loft, O praise him, Alleluia! Fair rising morn, with praise rejoice, stars nightly shining, find a voice, to refrain

Refrain O praise him O praise him, Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia!
