IN THE DARKNESS A FIRE IS KINDLED
THE GREAT SEASON OF EASTER

The season of the Great Fifty days of Easter has arrived. We call this season great because we celebrate the power and the hope of the risen Lord. The power of resurrection is more than the ending of mortality, it is also the ending of bondage to the power of death and all the “spiritual forces of wickedness” that separate us from God. The great season of Easter is about liberty and freedom, about being set free to love, to forgive, to reconcile, to create, to start over without shame or fear. It is like the Fourth of July for all of creation and we celebrate it for fifty days! Imagine the fireworks: shooting stars and solar flares!
