CRAZY BEAUTY

One of the ways that the image of God is evident in humanity is in how we persistently and stubbornly always make and create. Whether it is music or art or engineering or relationships or crazy gardens we are always finding new things and new ways to make. Think about the creation account in Genesis. Six days of more and more color, sound, smells, and life more and more each day, an explosion of more and overwhelming swarming teeming life. And on the seventh day God rested. In ancient Jewish and Christian tradition God got back up on the eighth day and kept on creating. Easter Sunday is sometimes called the Eighth Day of Creation. The Resurrection is the first new day of the new creation getting started.

I was talking with a parishioner recently about all the crazy things that can be done with fried hot dogs and that we should do an art show on that. From this came the idea for our next art show CRAZY ART: the crazy beauty of God’s image at work.

So what is this show specifically? Whatever comes up, crazy beauty, it could be fried hot dogs, or a reflection on the creation story, or how old shoes have an alluring dignity…Crazy stuff, go wild, show the image of God making what wasn’t there before.

The show begins Sunday June 2nd. Bring it in before that date and we’ll hang it up in Morris Hall. Be sure to include your name and title of the piece.

Crazy Pax,
Father Jack

The parts of our main church building

For the benefit of our newcomers and to refresh us old-timers, I am going to review some of the definitions referring to the physical plant where we worship on Sunday:

A cloister is defined as “an arched way or covered walk along the inside wall or walls of a church . . . with a columned opening along one side leading to a courtyard or garden.” Our lovely memorial cloister is a welcoming entrance to our place of worship. It is mostly enclosed to protect us from the elements as we enter or leave the main church building.

You may also enter the main church building via the narthex—“any church vestibule leading to the nave.” Our beautiful arched narthex doors open onto McDuffie and Morris Streets through the bell tower (the tallest part of the exterior of our main church building), the opposite direction of the cloister. The “holding” area at the back of the church is also part of the narthex.

The nave of Grace Church is where the pews are located and is defined as “that part of a church which is between the side aisles and extends from the chancel to the principal entrance, forming the main part of the building.” The nave is not to be confused with the sanctuary.

The sanctuary is “the part of the church immediately surrounding the altar, the holy of holies.” The sanctuary is also called the chancel and is set off by a railing or screen. Our sanctuary is set off by both a chancel rail (where we kneel to take Communion) and a rood screen. The sanctuary is only the small area between the kneeling rail and the rood screen.

A rood is “a cross as used in crucifixion, i.e., the cross on which Jesus was crucified.” A rood screen is “an ornamental screen, usually with a rood above it, serving as a partition.” In our church, the rood screen serves as a partition between the apse and the sanctuary. Our beautiful cross sits atop the rood screen between the floral offerings.

Our choir is seated in the apse of our main church building, behind the rood screen and across a small hallway from the sacristy. Apses are defined as “a semicircular or polygonal projection of a building, especially one at the east end of a church, with a domed or vaulted roof.” In addition to housing our talented choir, the apse at Grace Church displays the beautiful and timeless Shepherd Window we see as we look east when we worship.

And finally, the sacristy is “a room in a church, usually adjoining the sanctuary, where the sacred vessels, vestments, etc., are kept. Our Howard memorial sacristy is located across a small hallway from the apse.

Grace Notes

Chicken Pie and a Pickup Choir

If there is a saint among us it’s Alicia Hack. She has taken her tireless energy and channeled it into being the most amazing choir mother, assistant and friend to me and to all the members of both our choirs. The Children’s choir would not have the success we are experiencing without Hack. I have to give her full credit for the most amazing Wednesday night supper we have had 108 people, 19 chicken pies, salad to choke a horse and Kathryn Greene Heeny’s “Besto on McDuffie” Ice Cream Bar Along with Galina Hack and her kitchen prowess they managed to feed a legion of hungry folks that love our church and our kids. It was amazing. Thank you Pam Herold and Lynne Prince and everybody else that was involved in the set up and clean up and preparing food. Thank you parents for getting the cherubs to and from. They will grow old with wonderful memories of all that we are doing for them now. The money we raise will go into more educational tools, music and some fun things for all of us to experience. We are creating a legacy together. I thank you for this!

I’m calling an open invitation to anyone that would like to be a part of a new “Pickup Choir” that will sing at the 9:15 service. This is a casual no vestment/no rehearsal service. We sing very familiar “feel good” songs. All I ask is that you be in the choir loft at 9am sharp to run through the hymns we will sing. It will be fun, no pressure and give those of you who don’t want the commitment of the Grace Choir to make your joyful noise with me. This is a very important service and with your help in keeping it the success it has become. YOU ARE HIRED! Catch me if you have any questions….GRACE CHURCH NEEDS YOU!

Soli Deo Gloria

Bill

Interested in Membership at Grace? Or Baptism? Or Confirmation? Or studying the basics of Christian Faith? Then this class is for you, Episcopal Christianity. We meet on Sundays at 10 AM in Fr. Jack’s office. We begin April 14th and conclude May 19th.

Safe Church Training
As Christians, we live in a covenant relationship with God and with one another. Through the Sacrament of Holy Baptism, we enter into a sacred covenant in which we pledge to live lives that “seek and serve Christ in all persons,” and to “respect the dignity of every human being.” Because incidents of violence, hatred, and sexual misconduct occur in our world, the Church must maintain ethical and moral standards that clearly communicate what is, and what is not, acceptable behavior on the part of those called to Church leadership. SAFE Church training will help you to develop appropriate teaching, caring and mentoring relationships which are based in trust and the promises that we make in the Baptismal Covenant. This training will prepare you so that you can create relationships and environments where you can Make, Equip, and Send Mature Disciples.

Safe Church Training Dates: At Christ Church April 17 (wed) & May 8 (wed). both from 6-9PM.

May 5th Derby Day for World Missions (Grace Outreach) 4-6pm Food, Drink and Fun.
Thanks to all who attended the tour of Anderson Interfaith Ministries. Forty people attended and were impressed with what they saw and heard. AIM was pleasantly surprised at how many people attended and plans to do the tour again.

We will be organizing a special “hands on” project with the help of AIM. This project is still in the developmental stage and in all likelihood will involve home repairs for a family in Anderson. More on this soon.

We will be hosting a Derby Day event to help raise awareness about our focus on global missions including Haiti. This event will be May 4 and promises to be a lot of fun for the entire family.

Grace Church continues to work with the Upstate Homeless Coalition (Anderson Sunshine House) by leasing a house to them for $1 per year. Grace maintains the insurance on the property and is responsible for major repairs. The house (which is located on Morris St. behind the church) is in need of paint. We will be organizing a work day to get this accomplished. Hopefully, we will be able to address the garage behind the house also. The church is currently using this building for storage.

As always, all are welcome to attend the outreach meetings. Our next meeting is scheduled for the third Tuesday at 5:30. Hope to see you there.
